Advanced Accident Investigation and Reconstruction Course on the Way

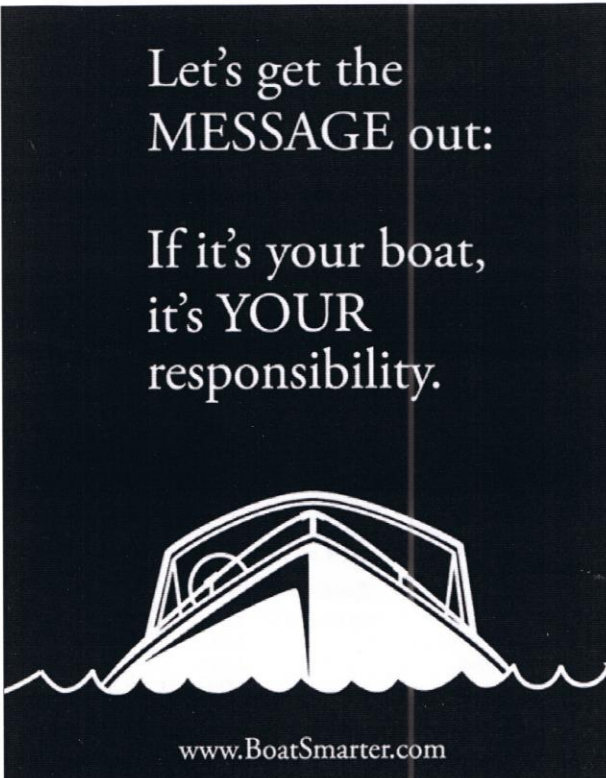

The Department of Boating and Waterways is developing an Advanced Accident Investigation & Reconstruction Course. A group consisting of marine enforcement officers from various parts of the state, current DBW Accident instructors and Department staff are meeting in September to develop the curriculum.

We are shooting for a 40-hour course and hope to have POST approval by the end of the year. The pilot will be held in March of 2007, and the first "official" class will be held in September of 2007.

If any member who has completed the basic accident investigation course has any comments or suggestions, they may contact either me or Wes Dodd directly.

Thank you,
Mary Thomas

Let's get the
MESSAGE out:
If it's your boat,
it's YOUR responsibility.
